TRICK-OR-TREAT AT FRANKLIN PARK CONSERVATORY

Columbus, OH – Franklin Park Conservatory and Botanical Gardens celebrates Halloween with a Trick-or-Treat event for children on Saturday, October 29 from 11am to 4pm.

Boys and “ghouls” of all ages are welcome to this family-friendly event that features seven treat stations scattered throughout the Conservatory’s biomes which represent desert, rainforest, Himalayan Mountain range, and Pacific Islands. Each biome will be decorated in a fun and spooky theme where staff and volunteers of the Conservatory will be in costume and handing out treats.

In addition to treats, children can also decorate a treat bag to be used to collect candy and other goodies during their visit.

All activities are free with admission and, while children are encouraged to wear their Halloween costumes, it is not mandatory.
